HELLO!
HONOLULU!

I have a phone for every man in Honolulu. Get it right over the wire — "Hello, Mr. Honolulu, Hello — this is Bulletin Bill speaking at the Model Clothiers. We have just received a large invoice of BLUE SERGE SUITS. Yes, they are FAST COLOR and the real TRUE BLUE 12-OZ. SERGE, just the right weight for this climate and we have all sizes from 31 to 46 breast, and while the Boss is away we are going to sell them for $15. I know he will kick like thunder at such a low price, but let him kick. Come in before the sizes are broken and get one or two. If the war in Europe keeps up the price of serge will go so high you can't touch it with a step-ladder, so come quick. Good bye — yes, we are open evenings. Good-bye — Biff—

Fort Shafter Notes

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

FORT SHAFTER, Oct. 5.—Captain and Mrs. James E. Bell will shortly remove from their present quarters in the cantonment to those formerly occupied by Captain and Mrs. Watkins in the main garrison.

The 1st battalion will finish record practice in combat firing tomorrow as far as the work for squads and platoons is concerned and will then take up the firing in the problems for companies. This done the range work on the Fort Shafter range for this season will be completed. It is the intention of the regimental commander to undertake problems for the battalions and also for the regiment when the command shall be at Schofield Barracks during the period of tactical inspection. These latter problems will be of great interest and should develop some pretty situations. The recent additional allowance of 50 rounds of ball cartridges for each man in the companies has made it possible for Colonel French to undertake the battalion problems and the Fort Shafter range being so limited necessitated the firing to be undertaken at the Leliehua range, where practically unlimited space is available.

The prompt action of the county authorities in the matter of repairing the broken places in the county road within the limits of the garrison is highly appreciated and in addition marks good administration on the part of those charged with the maintenance of highways. The road had become badly hummocked and cut by the heavy hauling of material for the additions to the department hospital and were not repaired promptly made would soon have necessitated complete overhauling. The post authorities are at last able to commence metalling the roads in the cantonment and they hope to push that part of the general repairs to completion. The recent heavy rains have made the cantonment roads well-nigh impassable until they succeeded in draining themselves.

The contractors engaged in drilling the well for the water supply of Kamehameha have set up the derrick and other apparatus and will commence the actual drilling this week. The surveyors have completed the running of the line of stakes for the location of the big pipeline that will carry the water through the post of Shafter to the artillery garrison.

The announcement that Lieut. and Mrs. Fred A. Cook of the 2nd Infantry would leave for the states on the Thomas was in error as Lieutenant Cook has not yet been returned to duty from his illness and is still a patient in the department hospital although well along towards recovery.

Lieut. and Mrs. F. D. Glassford were visitors from Schofield Barracks yesterday and remained over to be with Mrs. B. H. Watkins, pending Mrs. Watkins' departure by the Thomas today. Mrs. Glassford and Mrs. Watkins are friends of long standing and were schoolmates in girlhood days.

Mrs. Palmer E. Pierce, wife of Major Pierce of the 15th Infantry, was an overnight guest of Colonel and Mrs. B. W. Atkinson during the stop of the Manchuria last week at Honolulu. Mrs. Pierce is en route to join Major Pierce, who is at the station of his regiment in Peking.

CISSY LOFTUS AT POPULAR THEATER

STARRING IN 'A LADY OF QUALITY'

Scene from "A Lady of Quality," in which Cecelia Loftus is starred, to open at the Popular Theater at the matinee Wednesday.

Cecelia Loftus, more familiarly known as "Cissy" in the days of her great vaudeville popularity, is the next star billed at the Popular theater, coming in "A Lady of Quality" and making her initial appearance at the matinee of Wednesday. Supporting Miss Loftus is a company of exceptional ability, including House Peters, Peter Lang, Hal Clarendon, Geraldine O'Brien, Roy Pilsner, Dave Wall, Alexander Gaden, Henrietta Goodman and Edna Welch.

"A Lady of Quality" is filmed closely along the lines of that popular novel of the same title, from the pen of Frances Hodgson Burnett and the subject proves an ideal blending of the romance, beauty and daring of the days of knight hood, the film production being a brilliant picture of warmth and color of that picturesque period. Cecelia Loftus is admitted to be the premier mimic on the English speaking stage today, her several years in vaudeville lifting her to the highest pinnacle of theatrical fame. Since renouncing the "two-day" stage she has appeared at different times as leading lady to E. H. Sothorn, the late Sir Henry Irving and the late Richard Mansfield, and has won an enviable reputation for her ability as a character actress. She is seen to the best possible advantage in "A Lady of Quality" and is another of the noted stars to make her debut in Honolulu in the repertoire of "Blair's Greater Photo Plays."

"A Daughter of the Hills" continues to draw large crowds to the Popular theater and this offering, together with Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol," "The Mexican Spy"—the latter a picture taken by the McRae Company and introducing a number of Oahu scenes—and Harry Lauder will again be shown tonight and tomorrow night. "A Daughter of the Hills" has won the highest praise and proved a favorite in Honolulu, introducing as it does many beautiful scenes in Rome during the days of Nero.

ON MISSING BALLOT IN NOVEMBER

Nomination Papers Filed By Many Candidates and All are Expected to Follow Suit

Fearing the new primary statute may be declared illegal by the supreme court, Delegate Jonah Kuniho Kalaniana'ole hastily circulated a nominating petition last Saturday and caused it to be filed with the clerk of the territorial secretary's office late that afternoon. The petition carries the precise number of signatures required by the old law, and makes his nomination just as though the recent primary never had been held.

Some political prophets are contending that the new primary law did not repeal any provisions of the revised laws, which make the following stipulation concerning the nomination of candidates:

"No person shall be permitted to stand as a candidate for election to the legislature unless he shall be nominated and so requested in writing, signed by not less than twenty-five duly qualified electors of the district in which an election is ordered, and in which he is requested to be a candidate."

"Such nomination shall, except as hereinbefore provided, be deposited with the secretary of the Territory not less than thirty days before the day of a general election or twenty days prior to a special election, except on the island of Oahu, where such nomination shall be deposited not less than ten days before the day of any election."

It is thought now that all candidates whom the recent primary purly file nominating petitions, to guard against the contingency which will arise if the primary law is found null and void. The time limit in which these could be filed, for candidates of the other islands, expired at midnight Saturday, and only one candidate, reported to have nominated will formalized by a legislative candidate from Hilo, exercised the foresight to get his nominating petition in before that date. On Oahu the aspirants will have until ten days before the November election to file, the time limit expiring midnight of October 24.

Should the supreme court find the primary statute unconstitutional a general mixup is certain to result and some special arrangements will be found necessary to get the requisite number of names on the ballots. Six candidates for the senate and 25 candidates for the house have paid their nomination fees to the territorial secretary. Those already filed are as follows:

For the senate—James D. Lewis, Republican; Raymond H. Makekau, Democrat; and George P. Kamaoaha, Progressive, for the island of Hawaii; H. E. Palakiko, Democrat, for the island of Maui; Eric A. Knudsen, Republican, and M. A. Mikale, Democrat, for the island of Kauai.

House Well Represented.

For the house of representatives—Dr. George H. Huddy, Norman K. Lyman and J. P. Hale, Republicans; M. S. Pacheco, M. Kekio Kealawa and Thomas N. Naleleoua, Democrats; and Moses Doiron, Home Ruler, for East Hawaii; H. L. Holstein, M. K. Makekau and D. K. Kaupiko, Republicans; "General" Henry L. Kawewehi, Home Ruler, and Charles Ka. Democrat, for West Hawaii; Antonio F. Tavares, Antonio Garcia, Peruvia J. Goodness, W. F. Crockett and E. Waiaholo, Republicans; J. P. Kaono-hi, Progressive, and L. N. Bennett Keahi, Sam Kuula and Henry C. Mossman, Democrats, for Maui; John H. Coney, James K. Loti and James K. Kula, Republicans, and J. S. Chandler, Democrat, for the island of Kauai.
